

Philosophy & Ethics A Level Exam Information

Summer 2022

Paper 1:

- a. i. Component 1 - Christianity. First choice of question to be drawn from Theme 1 - Religious Figures and Sacred Texts. Additional choice of question to be drawn from any three of the following six areas: Theme 2A, 2B, 2C, 2D - Religious Concepts and Religious Life; Theme 3B, 3C - Relationship between religion and society
- b. ii. 2 hours
- c. iii. 09/06

Paper 2:

- a. i. Component 2 - Philosophy. First choice of question to be drawn from Theme 4 - Religious Language. Additional choice of question to be drawn from any three of the following six areas: Theme 1D, 1E - Deductive arguments - ontological; Theme 2D, 2E - Freud and Jung's views of religion; Theme 3E, 3F - Miracles and contrasting scholarly views
- b. ii. 2 hours
- c. iii. 14/06

Paper 3:

- a. i. Component 3 - Ethics. First choice of question to be drawn from Theme 1 - Ethical though include meta-ethical approaches. Additional choice of question to be drawn from any three of the following six areas: Theme 2A, 2C - Aquinas' Natural Law based on laws and precepts and its application to ethical issues; Theme 3E, 3F - Mill's Utilitarianism and application of Bentham and Mill to ethical issues; Theme 4B, 4C - Concepts of determinism and implications of predestination/determinism
- b. ii. 2 hours
- c. iii. 21/06