When your information will be shared and retained

Depending on the nature of your enquiry and which other schools or government departments you may have contacted; your name and request may be shared between them. This is to help deal with your enquiry more effectively.

No other details will be shared and your information will not be used for any other purpose.

Please note that under The National Archives retention guidance (TNA) 14, your request will be retained for 6 years from when your request is closed.

If your request is turned down

Some sensitive information isn't available to members of the public. If this applies, we will give you the reasons why.

As an organisation, we can also refuse your Freedom of Information Act request if it will cost more than £450 to find and extract the information.
